

Analisa Anderson
Physical Education/Creative Movement Instructor

email: analisa.anderson@usu

Education

Currently enrolled Bachelor of Physical Education, Utah State University, 2005-06

Field of Specialization:

Elementary Physical Education: teaching movement skills and movement methods through a structured skill based curriculum. Emphasis on an Integrated physical education and creative movement, Utah State core curriculum, and the National Standards. National Association for Sport Recreation and Dance. (NASPE)

Teaching Experience

Elementary Physical Education Teacher; grades pre-K, K - 5, multi age learning communities, and looping.

Elementary Physical Education and Creative Movement Specialist. Edith Bowen 1999-current

Elementary Physical Education Specialist, Hillcrest Elementary, Logan City School District, 1995-1999

Elementary Physical Education Specialist, Woodruff Elementary, Logan City School District, 1988-1991

Preschool, large and small motor skills, KidsLand Preschool, 1986-1988

Recent Presentations and/or Publications

Anderson, Analisa, March 27-April 1, 2006. Tools to Cross the Curricular Causeway National Association of Laboratory Schools Conference. New York, New York.

Professional Affiliations

NALS, National Association Laboratory Schools.

AAHPERD, American Alliance for Health, Physical Education, Recreation, and Dance.

UAHPERD, Utah Alliance for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance.

UDEO, Utah Dance Education Organization.

radKIDS, resisting aggression defensively, radKIDS Inc. Personal Empowerment Safety Education